

Recognizing the Service and Commitment of Dr. Kevin McNamee

Whereas, Dr. Kevin McNamee has honorably served the City of Thousand Oaks as a City Council Member for more than three years, bringing innovative solutions to address the challenges facing the city and county; and

Whereas, during his tenure, Dr. McNamee has championed over 38 projects aimed at improving the quality of life for all residents by addressing critical issues such as the homeless crisis, public safety, job creation, business growth, workforce housing for essential professions, and water sustainability and reuse; and

Whereas, Dr. McNamee has devoted countless hours to engaging with the community by visiting local malls, shopping centers, and businesses to listen to residents' thoughts about Thousand Oaks and ensuring their voices are heard through actionable steps taken by the city; and

Whereas, as a dedicated educator at Ventura College's Water Science Department, Dr. McNamee has supported the next generation of professionals in the water and wastewater treatment industry, fostering a commitment to sustainability and public health; and

Whereas, Dr. McNamee has provided invaluable volunteer services to underserved and uninsured residents in the Conejo Valley through the Westminster Free Clinic, offering acupuncture and chiropractic care; and

Whereas, his volunteer contributions extend to supporting the LAPD Air Support Division, where he has provided care to the women and men dedicated to keeping our communities safe; and

Whereas, with over 35 years of experience as an acupuncturist and chiropractor, Dr. McNamee continues to serve the community through his clinical practice at the California Health Institute in Thousand Oaks and Woodland Hills; and

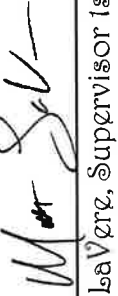

Whereas, as a past Mayor and term as a City Council Member, Dr. McNamee's unwavering dedication and tireless efforts have made Thousand Oaks a shining example of civic pride and excellence, earning its reputation as the Gem of California;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the County of Ventura Board of Supervisors commends and recognizes Dr. Kevin McNamee for his outstanding service, visionary leadership, and steadfast commitment to enhancing the well-being and quality of life for all residents of our community.
